Property Introduction

Offered for sale with no onward chain and extended from the original design to create additional living space, this detached bungalow occupies a corner plot within a mature development close to the village centre.

One will find four bedrooms, two of which have an en-suite WC, a generous lounge, dining room and a re-fitted contemporary style kitchen. Stairs in the extended part of the bungalow lead to the attic, which is boarded and has double glazed VELUX skylights, there is uPVC double glazing and the bungalow is warmed by an oil fired central heating system. The integral garage has been used as a hobby room in recent years with the up and over door being temporarily sealed. Gardens lie mainly to the front and side, being largely lawned with mature shrubs and parking is available for two vehicles to the side of the bungalow in front of the former garage. In summary a substantial property which is ideal for family occupation and viewing our interactive virtual tour is highly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.
