Property Introduction

Situated within the desirable hamlet of Bolenowe, this semi-detached character cottage is being offered for sale with no onward chain. Sympathetically updated, there are two double sized bedrooms and a bathroom on the first floor. The sun room to the front enjoys a rural outlook across the garden, the combined lounge and dining room focuses on a floor to ceiling stone fireplace with a granite lintel housing a recessed multi-fuel stove and there are beamed ceilings and wood floors. The galley style kitchen has been remodelled and there is a utility porch. The cottage is double glazed and oil fired central heating is provided by an external 'Grant' boiler installed in 2024. The garden to the front is attractively laid out, largely lawned and features a raised deck ideal for outside entertaining. There are gardens to the rear and side with a neighbouring property having a pedestrian right of way to the rear. Set to one side is a stone faced workshop/home office which is divided into two rooms and has power and light connected. Parking is available for two cars to the front of the garden. To summarise, a superbly presented character home which warrants a closer inspection to be fully appreciated and a viewing of our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended.

Location

The cottage is situated in the secluded and picturesque hamlet of Bolenowe which offers all the benefits of a rural location with its extensive network of footpaths giving immediate access to the surrounding countryside. Within a mile, is the village of Troon which has a range of day to day shopping outlets and there is schooling for younger children. The nearest major town, Camborne, is located within three miles and here is a comprehensive range of shopping outlets, schooling for older children, access to the A30 trunk road and a mainline railway station with direct links to London Paddington and the North of England. Falmouth on the south coast which is Cornwall's university town will be found within nine miles and Truro, the administrative and cultural centre of Cornwall is within thirteen miles.
