Property Introduction

Offered for sale with no onward chain, this end terrace house, which is ideal as a family home does require some updating and modernisation. The ground floor offers a separate lounge and dining room together with a fitted kitchen, stairs from the hallway lead to the first floor where there are three bedrooms and a large bathroom. The property benefits from uPVC double glazing and one will find a modern gas fired central heating boiler supplying radiators.

Externally gardens lie on three sides with the rear garden being particularly large with a summerhouse/workshop and with rear access for parking.

A deceptive property which requires viewing to be fully appreciated, viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended before taking a closer inspection.

Location

Conveniently located for access to the town, Camborne offers an eclectic mix of both local and national shopping outlets, there are banks, a mainline railway station which connects with London Paddington and the north of England and the A30 can be accessed within half a mile.

Well suited for commuting to Truro, which is the administrative and cultural centre of Cornwall, the university town of Falmouth on the south coast is within a similar commute and the north coast village of Portreath, which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbour, will be found within five miles.
