Praze an Beeble, Camborne

£320,000 Freehold

Property Introduction

Located within the heart of this popular village to the south of Camborne, Topsy Turvy cottage is believed to date from the early 1800's. Offering loads of character, this reverse accommodation cottage has three bedrooms, one of which has an en-suite, on the ground floor. Turning stairs lead to the first floor where there is an open plan triple aspect living space which is split level and focuses on a wood burning stove. There are open beamed ceilings, exposed stone walling and set to one side is a fitted kitchen. Leading off from the living area, French doors open onto an extensive balcony ideal for outside entertaining and there is also a bathroom accessed from the top of the stairs. The windows are double glazed and there is an oil fired central heating system supplying radiators. Approached from the rear, one will find an attractive courtyard style garden and parking is available in the courtyard for one vehicle.

In summary, an amazing character property which requires a closer inspection to be fully appreciated, viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

The village of Praze an Beeble is some three miles south of the major town of Camborne, the village benefits from an attractive and welcoming local community and has an historic public house, doctors surgery, village store and post office together with a village school.

The nearby historic town of Camborne offers a mix of national and local shopping outlets, there are major banks and a mainline railway link to London Paddington and the north of England together with schooling for older children and direct access onto the A30 trunk road. Hayle on the north coast which is famed for its miles of golden sandy beaches and Truro, the administrative and shopping centre of Cornwall together with Falmouth on the south coast which is Cornwall's university town are all within an easy commute.
