Property Introduction

This non-estate bungalow, which is being offered for sale chain-free, is located in a quiet location on the outskirts of Camborne. Individually designed, it has been updated in recent years and now offers a contemporary living environment with generously proportioned rooms. One will find two double size bedrooms, a lounge, remodelled kitchen/dining room and bathroom. To the rear is a large conservatory which overlooks the garden and interconnects with the bedrooms, the garage is integral with the property and has a utility space to one end. There is uPVC double glazing and heating is provided by a modern combination gas boiler. Set back from the road by mature hedging, there is ample parking and turning to the front whilst to the rear, the garden continues the generous theme and is enclosed, offers a high level of privacy and features an attractive patio ideal for outside entertaining. Well suited for retired persons or working couples, properties of this quality rarely come to the market and require a closer inspection to be fully appreciated. Viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

The property is less than a mile from the town centre and a short drive from 'Tesco' superstore on the fringe of the town.

Camborne, which is steeped in mining history, offers all of the services you would expect from modern living, there is a mix of local and national shopping outlets, a bank and Post Office together with a mainline Railway Station which connects to London Paddington and the north of England.

There is also access to the A30 trunk road within a mile.

Truro, the administrative and cultural heart of Cornwall, is within thirteen miles, the north coast of Portreath is within five miles and the south coast university town of Falmouth is within fourteen miles.
