Property Introduction

It sits proudly (and very quietly) in a tranquil setting at the end of a private lane, Wheal Cottage is a splendidly presented bungalow with three double-bedrooms and two bathrooms, plus a stunning array of additional attractive features and benefits for the discerning buyer.

This beautifully maintained property, offers a completely private setting and a spectacular garden of over 1/3rd acre, with mature trees, shrubs and hedges, enjoying wonderful countryside views - plus numerous other features, including a garden office, a summer house, garden shed, fish pond and a magical Piskie trail.

The top of the property also boasts a garage, fitness/craft room, utility room, large workshop/man cave, woodshed and two greenhouses - and the bottom of the garden provides a second entrance, with feature double gate access, more outbuildings and hard parking for several cars.

There is also a BBQ/entertaining patio at the top of the garden and a south-facing sun patio halfway down the garden. Wheal Cottage is double glazed throughout and has gas central heating, delivered by a Worcester Bosch boiler. The loft is a good size and is insulated and boarded. All services are connected. All living rooms have fitted carpets.

Location

Brea Village is an idyllic rural village location, completely off the tourist track, but close to the legendary North Cornish beaches and the South West Coastal Path. Portreath and Godrevy are only 15 minutes away by car and St Ives is 35 minutes by train. The village enjoys a regular bus service.

Outdoor pursuits are readily catered for, with mine trails close by, together with the Great Flat Lode, and Tehidy Country Park with its 250 acres of protected woodland.

Major retail outlets are only a short car ride away, as is Camborne Railway Station, providing direct links to London Paddington, Bristol and the North.

Newquay Airport is only 45 minutes away by car.
