Property Introduction

Tucked away yet conveniently situated ideally situated for accessing the many amenities of the city centre, Trewinnard Court is believed to have been originally converted back in 1999, yet it retains much of its original character and features, making this a truly one-off location to enjoy and make your family home.

Approached via double gates and a pillared entrance, a communal driveway gives access to the building with its impressive well-maintained gardens and grounds with vehicular access to the left leading directly to the allocated parking spaces for number five to the side as well as a single garage.

Upon entering the property you immediately appreciate the generous accommodation with the main entrance hallway giving access to all principal rooms on the ground floor. The meandering accommodation is in the region of 2400 square feet and is arranged over four floors consisting of a well-equipped kitchen/diner, splendid living room enjoying a pleasant outlook over the garden, boot room and cloakroom.

From the hallway, steps descend to the basement with a utility room and access to a snug/playroom whilst to the additional floors are five bedrooms along with two en-suites and a family bathroom all of which benefit from a gas fired central heating system.

Location

This small development is located a short distance away from the city centre with its many shops and amenities. Truro is a small city renowned for its Georgian architecture, cobbled streets and an excellent range of high street multiples sat alongside local independent stores and is also home to the Hall for Cornwall situated on the piazza.

Other popular attractions are the landmark museum building and art gallery, cinema, sports centre, Victoria and Boscowen parks with the desirable riverside village of Malpas nearby for boating enthusiasts and the delightful Heron Public House.

Both north and south coasts are within a reasonable travelling distance with their contrasting coastlines with the north popular for surfing whilst the south is more sheltered and ideal for sailing and other water sports.

Truro has a mainline railway station that operates to London Paddington with the main A30 just moments away, making access to the other parts of the county and beyond that much easier.
