Property Introduction

Situated within a cul-de-sac of similar style bungalows, this detached bungalow is ideal for a first time buyer or retired persons.

The property benefits from two bedrooms, there is a lounge/dining room and fitted kitchen, in addition to the bathroom one will find a utility room. There is gas fired central heating and the windows and doors are uPVC double glazed.

To the outside there is paviour parking to the front whilst the driveway to the side gives additional parking and also access to an extended garage/workshop. The rear garden is paved and gravelled to reduce maintenance and has a substantial timber shed.

A property that requires closer inspection to be fully appreciated, viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

Situated on the outskirts of the popular Cornish town of Camborne, which is renowned for its historic mining heritage and offers a good range of local shops and amenities which also includes a mainline railway station with direct links to London Paddington and the north of England.

Access to both north and south coasts is within a reasonable travelling distance, both being popular for various types of water sports such as surfing and sailing as well as their contrasting coastlines. Within a short commute is the cathedral city of Truro, which is approximately fifteen miles distant, the south coast university town of Falmouth is within twelve miles and Portreath on the north coast, which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbour, will be found within six miles.
