Property Introduction

Every now and again, a property becomes available on the market offering the 'wow' factor. This particular family home falls into that category and for those buyers looking for a home to move into and enjoy a high standard of finish, then this wonderful property could be for you. Upon entering the property via a porchway/sunroom, a generous size lounge with folding doors gives access into a breathtaking kitchen/diner divided into separate areas with the focal point being a semi-circle unit with built-in oven incorporating a breakfast bar. Within the kitchen are various soft-close base and wall units, some with LED display cabinets, wine cooler and patio doors giving access to the exterior. Additional accommodation comprises of a utility room with built-in storage cupboard, while to the first floor is a re-fitted shower room, three good size bedrooms, all of which have built-in wardrobes, with the principal bedroom having an en-suite shower room and bedroom two benefiting from a balcony enjoying views towards the harbour and sea. The accommodation throughout benefits from double glazed windows and doors plus a gas fired central heating system. Externally, to the front is a small garden with shrubs while to the rear is a car port and single garage with electric up-and-over door.

Location

Portreath is a popular coastal village renowned for its excellent surfing beach along with its harbour and delightful clifftop walks taking you towards Porthtowan or Hayle. Within the village, local shops cater very well for day-to-day needs with junior school and close proximity to Redruth and Truro.

The nearby Tehidy Woods offer excellent dog walking opportunities while the main A30 trunk road is located within a reasonable travelling distance making access to other areas of the county that much easier.
