Property Introduction

This well presented semi-detached house is less than three quarters of a mile virtual level walk of the attractive harbour and sandy beach at Portreath. Enjoying a rural backdrop to the front and rear, there are three double size bedrooms and a refitted bathroom on the first floor, on the ground floor the dining room features a full width patio door opening on to the rear garden and there is wide archway leading to the lounge which features a wood burning stove. The kitchen has been remodelled with a range of Shaker style units and the former garage has been converted into a generous utility/store incorporating a WC. Heating is provided by an LPG gas combination boiler supplying radiators and the windows and doors are uPVC double glazed. To the outside a brick paviour driveway to the front gives parking for up to four cars and pedestrian access to the side leads to the rear enclosed garden which is designed to be easy to maintain and features a full width partially covered decked seating area. The remainder of the garden focuses on a raised slate bed with mature shrubs and at the bottom of the garden there is a further raised patio which overlooks a stream to the rear boundary. It should be noted that the rear garden offers a high level of privacy and enjoys a rural outlook. Viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended to whet your appetite prior to arranging a physical inspection.

Location

Within three quarters of a mile one will find the sought after coastal village of Portreath which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbour. Popular with surfers and bathers alike, the North Coast footpath with its stunning walks passes through the village. Active throughout the year there are local shops, a bakery and a Public House which offers dining facilities. Schooling is available within the village for younger children and senior education is available nearby at Redruth. The A30 trunk road can be found within five miles, Redruth has a mainline Railway Station with direct links to London Paddington and the north of England and Truro, the administrative and shopping centre for Cornwall is within fifteen miles, as is the university town of Falmouth on the south coast.
