AGENT'S NOTE AND LEASEHOLD INFORMATION

The Council Tax band is band 'C'. The solar panels provide power for the hot water and heating and are owned by the freeholder. Remainder of 99 year lease commencing 1st July 2007. We advise buyers to check with their lender (if relevant) regarding the length remaining on the lease. For the remaining 75% of the property there is a rental fee of £434.32 a month. Please note that the rent is only calculated as a percentage of the retained equity when the lease is granted. All resale properties will have been the subject to annual rent increases, which mean that the rent no longer represents a percentage of the retained equity. Further details of the rent review periods and calculations are contained within the key information document which is available on application. Your annual rent is calculated as 2.48% of the remaining share of the full market value owned by the landlord. In addition to the rent above, the monthly payment to the landlord includes: Service charge/estate charge £93.72 (paid to an external company) Buildings insurance £32.14 (paid to an external company) Total monthly payment excluding rent £125.86 (these are subject to change during the purchase process) You can apply to buy the home if both of the following apply: • your household income is £80,000 or less • you cannot afford all of the deposit and mortgage payments to buy a home that meets your needs One of the following must also be true: • you're a first-time buyer • you used to own a home but cannot afford to buy one now • you're forming a new household - for example, after a relationship breakdown • you're an existing shared owner, and you want to move • you own a home and want to move but cannot afford to buy a new home for your needs. If you own a home, you must have completed the sale of the home on or before the date you complete your shared ownership purchase. As part of your application, your finances and credit history will be assessed to ensure that you can afford and sustain the rental and mortgage payments.

Section 106 Eligibility - The property is subject to a local connection criteria. In the first instance priority will be given to residents with a local connection to the County of Cornwall but preference will be to those with a connection to the town of Falmouth demonstrated by the following:- a) being permanently resident therein for a continuous period of at least 12 months immediately prior to advertising and that residence is of their own choice; or b) being formerly permanently resident therein for a continuous period of five (5) years; or c) having his or her place of permanent work (normally regarded as 16 hours or more a week and not including seasonal employment) therein immediately prior to advertising or; d) have a connection through a close family member (normally mother, father, brother, sister, son or daughter) where the family member is currently resident therein and has been so for a continuous period of at least five (5) years immediately prior to advertising; or this will further cascade to any eligible purchaser after 90 days of advertising. This information has been taken from the Section 106 Agreement which is a planning condition. An application process will happen if you are interested.
