Property Introduction

'Pretty Porch Cottage' is a delightful Mellow Stone character terraced property located within the popular village of Stithians. As you would expect from a property of this period it offers a wealth of charm and features with the added benefit of enjoying a beautiful rural outlook from the rear elevation over surrounding fields and countryside. Upon entering the cottage via a stained glass entrance porch you step into a feature lounge with granite fireplace, showcasing a wood burning stove with slate hearth with the additional accommodation comprising of an extended kitchen/diner, two bedrooms and a family bathroom, all of which have uPVC double glazed windows and doors and a bottle gas heating system. The property also benefits from owned solar panels. Immediately to the front is an off-road parking space with a pathway adjacent leading to the front door with adjoining garden offering a range of shrubs and flowers together with a bricked patio. Detached and a short distance from the cottage at the end of the terrace is a gateway leading into a private garden laid mainly to lawn and also having the advantage of overlooking the fields and countryside. Access is also gained to a useful timber outbuilding with electricity which we have been advised by the vendors is insulated and could be used for numerous uses and has the advantage of a small wood burning stove.

Location

Stithians is a popular village with a vibrant community located within a reasonable travelling distance to the maritime town of Falmouth and the city of Truro with Redruth and Helston also a similar distance away. Within the village local facilities include a primary school, public house, doctors surgery and a village shop which caters very well for day to day needs along with a cricket club and a village hall.

Being a rural village there are a number of countryside walks nearby as well as both north and south coasts being within a reasonable travelling distance with their contrasting coastlines, the north being popular for surfing whilst the south is renowned for its excellent sailing waters.
