Property Introduction

This semi-detached family home is light and bright and comprises of an updated 19' kitchen/diner, a separate utility/storage room, a ground floor cloakroom, a lounge, three first floor bedrooms and an updated bathroom.

To the outside the garden wraps around with space to the rear for a barbecue and a useful storage shed.

The property is located just a stone's throw from a public park, outside gym and the Dracaena Centre which offers a range of activities, this ex-local authority home offers a well presented home for a lucky buyer.

Location

Set in a crescent off Old Hill in Falmouth this ex-local authority house is near to a bakery, fish and chip shop and the Falmouth Marina, primary school and with supermarkets a short drive away. The harbour town of Falmouth boasts a wide variety of shops, restaurants and banks can be found just over one and a half miles away with an abundance of visitor attractions. There are four beaches Gyllyngvase, Castle Beach, Maenporth and Swanpool and the sailing waters of the Carrick Roads are considered amongst the best in the country. Popular visitor attractions such as the National Maritime Museum and Pendennis Castle provide an alternative source of enjoyment and there are golf courses close by. Evening entertainment can often be found at Events Square in the heart of the town and there is a multi-screen cinema.

Three train stations in Falmouth provide a regular rail link to the cathedral City of Truro where there is a connecting main line to London Paddington.
