Property Introduction

An impressive non-estate bungalow situated in the village of Four Lanes, which in recent times has undergone total refurbishment and modernisation, and now offering contemporary accommodation benefitting from uPVC double glazed windows and doors and an LPG gas fired heating system. Upon entering the property via an entrance vestibule, a light and airy hallway greets you with a large built-in storage cupboard and access to the additional accommodation comprising of three bedrooms, modern bathroom suite and lounge with open-plan archway accessing an impressive fitted kitchen with a good range of fitted cupboards and integrated appliances. Adjoining the kitchen, in what was formally the garage, is a utility room which could also be utilised for storage and has the benefit of an electric rolling door.

Externally to the front are ample parking facilities in the driveway with a lawned area of garden, while to the rear is a large enclosed garden which is also laid mainly to lawn with a raised decked area.

Location

Four Lanes is situated on the outskirts of the town of Redruth which has a good range of retail outlets as well as a mainline Railway Station with direct links to London Paddington and the north of England. Both north and south coasts are within a reasonable travelling distance - the north being famed for its surfing beaches such as Portreath, Porthtowan and St Agnes and the majestic clifftop walks taking in breathtaking scenery. For those interested in sailing, the calmer waters of the south coast at Falmouth are also within a reasonable travelling distance being popular for kayaking as well as paddleboarding.

The cathedral city of Truro lies approximately fifteen miles distant being the main centre in Cornwall for business and commerce. Within Four Lanes itself is a Post Office and general stores along with schooling for primary children being available at Pencoys Primary School. There are also Public Houses within the immediate area.
