Property Introduction

This quaint well presented Grade II listed cottage is conveniently located for all the amenities Penryn has to offer!

It has a lounge, kitchen/diner, two bedrooms and a bathroom on the first floor.

There is a lovely enclosed area to sit and enjoy a BBQ or children to play safely at the rear, and on-street unallocated parking is close to cottage.

Location

Penryn is an historic market town located at the head of the Penryn River with a varied selection of niche retail shops as well as a convenience store, Post Office, cafes and public houses. The train station provides a regular service to the cathedral city of Truro where there is a main line rail link to London Paddington.

The expanding Tremough University is situated on the edge of town, whilst Penryn College is easily accessible via the numerous bus routes serving the town.

The harbour town of Falmouth is about two miles distant with a wider range of specialist shops and high street stores as well as high quality restaurants and bars. There are a number of beaches whilst the sailing waters of the Carrick Roads are regarded as amongst the best in the country. Additional visitor attractions such as the National Maritime Museum and Pendennis Castle provide an alternative source of enjoyment and there are a number of golf courses located close by.
