Property Introduction

SMALL YET PERFECTLY FORMED....

This charming one bedroom cottage has been greatly improved by the present owner and now offers you the chance to buy a home where you can just move in and pop the kettle on.

On the ground floor there is an open plan living space and re-fitted kitchen with a generous double bedroom and spacious bathroom found upstairs.

The property is fully double glazed and warmed via electric radiators. We feel this makes a superb first time purchase and urge you to view at the earliest opportunity to avoid disappointment!

Location

Redruth is a historic former mining town situated just off the A30 trunk road, therefore, being ideal for accessing other areas of the county.

Within the town centre are a variety of retail shops along with a mainline Railway Station operating to London Paddington and the north of England. The majestic north coast is also within a reasonable travelling distance famed for its surfing beaches, such as Porthtowan, Portreath and St Agnes along with beautiful clifftop walks taking in the wonderful vista.

The cathedral city of Truro lies approximately ten miles distant being the main centre in Cornwall for business and commerce, and offers a wider range of retail outlets and is also home to the Hall for Cornwall located on the piazza.
