Property Introduction

Located in one of Redruth's most sought after residential areas is this impressive end terrace family home offering an array of period features such as ornate coving, ceiling roses and high ceilings. Approached via a pedestrian pathway with granite steps leading to a covered entrance, this gives way to an impressive hallway with a tessellated tiled floor. From here access is gained to a feature lounge with further ornate coving and ceiling rose, along with an open fireplace. A fully equipped kitchen/diner has an excellent range of built-in units along with integrated oven whilst a staircase ascends to the first floor and accesses four bedrooms, shower room and a feature bathroom with slipper style bath. From the landing, a staircase gives access to an attic room, currently utilised by the vendors as a hobby room. The versatile accommodation to the ground floor has the advantage of a self-contained annexe with its own entrance hallway with the accommodation comprising of a lounge, kitchenette, bedroom and shower room. This would be an ideal space for extended family or letting purposes or alternatively creating more bedrooms. Externally to the front, a gravelled pathway with granite steps give access to the main entrance, whilst to the rear is a manageable sized garden with a range of shrubs and adjacent off-road parking. We have been advised that planning permission was granted in 2006 for conversion of the property into four individual apartments. Planning application ref: W2/PA06/01445/F.
