Property Introduction

Situated in the heart of this popular village, this is a surprisingly spacious cottage home.

The property has three bedrooms with a lounge, dining room, kitchen and ground floor shower room.

The property is double glazed and this is complemented by electric heating.

Offered for sale with no onward chain.

Internal inspection of this property is highly recommended.

Location

St Day is a historic former copper mining village claimed as being at one point the richest square mile in the world due to the prosperity of the copper mining industry. The village has a general stores and convenient stores, Post Office, a butchers shop, a school and churches. It is ideally located for commuting either to Truro or Falmouth, both approximately eight miles distant or to the A30 approximately one and half miles distant.

Redruth offers everyday amenities to include Primary and Secondary schools, shopping and banking facilities and a main line rail way connection from Penzance up to London Paddington. Approximately five miles from Redruth is the north coastal village of Portreath which offers a popular surfing beach and beautiful coastal and harbour walks. Approximately twelve miles away is the cathedral city of Truro which offers a more comprehensive shopping, banking and schooling facility together with the Hall for Cornwall theatre.
