Property Introduction

Situated in the popular village of Angarrack, renowned for its Christmas lights display, this most spacious three bedrooomed detached bungalow offers beautifully presented accommodation.

The living room boasts a feature log burner for those chillier evenings and the re-fitted kitchen has a contemporary finish and a breakfast bar for informal dining. Joining the kitchen to the living room is a generous conservatory which gives access to the terraced rear garden. This lovely home has three bedrooms, with the principal bedroom having an en-suite shower room, there is also a re-fitted family shower room.

The attractive tiered rear garden has a raised deck offering views over the viaduct and village and a westerly aspect, perfect for those summer barbecues.

Location

Situated in the village of Angarrack with lovely views towards Angarrack Railway Viaduct. Angarrack is a small and friendly village which features a village Public House and is also famous for its Christmas lights which are assembled by volunteers each year and visited by thousands of people around the country. The village is on the outskirts of Hayle and has easy access to the A30 which is approximately half a mile away.

Hayle has a wide range of independent retail outlets along with a choice of supermarkets. Primary and Secondary schooling is also available. Hayle is famous for its three miles of golden sands with impressive sand dunes which provide endless walks with amazing views.
