A former inland port on the tidal path of the river Tamar, Calstock is a lively village with a good community spirit and a regular, 35-minute train service to Plymouth. Sailors and boat owners should take particular note; there are moorings and a nearby boatyard, with tidal access to Plymouth Sound approx. 12 nautical miles downriver. The Tamar Valley, along the Devon/Cornwall border, offers superb opportunities to discover the region's rich heritage. The village of Gunnislake, including an Asda fuel station and mini-supermarket, is only 1 mile away whilst the thriving market town of Tavistock in West Devon, with its superb range of shopping, recreational and educational facilities, is just 6 miles away to the northeast.
