DESCRIPTION

This property is a wonderful example of 19th-century architecture, built as a residence for the former Mayor of Plymouth, and successful local businessman, John Pethick. Today, it is a house of incredible quality and great personality which has retained a wealth of traditional features, including beautiful high ceilings, elegant mouldings, picture rails, bay windows and fireplaces, as well as stylish, comfortable and contemporary fixtures and fittings, having been comprehensively renovated during the past 3 years.

The superbly flexible accommodation totals almost 5,500sq.ft and would serve either as a substantial statement home with up to 8 bedrooms, or as a 4/5-bedroom principal residence with a self-contained 2/3-bedroom annexe or letting unit on the second floor. The house is approached over a tree-lined drive and set within large, well-maintained, south-facing gardens and grounds over an acre in all, which also contain a triple garage, veranda and hot tub. Other notable features include the incredible drawing room, breath-taking master suite and a fantastic games room, accessed through a hidden bookcase doorway. The property is available with no onward chain.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is arranged over three floors and accessed through an entrance porch into a grand reception hallway with an impressive turning staircase to the first floor. The ground floor accommodation is then comprised as follows: an exquisite open-plan drawing room with beautiful architectural arches, traditional wall panelling and high sash windows; an adjoining sun room with beautiful views of the gardens; a good-sized sitting room, with decorative ceiling cornices, cast iron fireplace and dual-aspect bay windows; a library/study with built-in bookshelves, one of which doubles as a concealed doorway; a hidden games room beyond the study, featuring a drinks bar and wine store; a cloakroom with a traditional high-flush toilet and vanity unit; the superb kitchen with walk-in pantry, and; a separate utility room. The kitchen is equipped with a range of cupboards and cabinets with granite worktops and a large central island/breakfast bar. Appliances include a Belling 7-ring dual-fuel range cooker.

On the first floor are four extremely well-proportioned, lavish bedrooms, two of which are served by en-suite bathrooms with the master suite additionally benefiting from "his and her" walk-in wardrobes. A separate bathroom with a free-standing bath and double shower has been elegantly finished.

On the second floor, accessed by stairs from an inner landing, there are a further four potential double bedrooms, including one with a balcony and stunning views over the Tamar estuary, and one currently being used as a sitting room. Additionally, there is a fully functional kitchen with an integrated fridge, a 4-ring electric hob and oven, and a separate bathroom. This floor can be accessed externally via steps leading out to the side of the property, making it suitable as a self-contained annexe apartment or a potential holiday/residential letting income stream.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached over a private lane and an electric-gated, tree-lined sweeping driveway. Entry to the house is via a keyless security system and the house is equipped with external CCTV security cameras. There is a triple garage with power and water connections, and ample parking on the drive. To the side of the garage, there is a gated walkway providing access to Roborough Common. The garden has been beautifully maintained, being mainly laid to lawn with mature shrub borders.
