DESCRIPTION

This handsome, 5-double bedroom Edwardian house has been a wonderful home to our client for almost 18 years, during which time the property has seen considerable improvement and overhaul, whilst the building's traditional charm and features have been sympathetically retained. Works undertaken include extensive decoration and internal replastering, the provision of a damp-proof course, cornicing and other detailing, re-plumbing, re-wiring, a new boiler (2019), a new bathroom, overhaul of the roof, some new windows, enhancement of the house's insulation, and remodelling works to include division of the loft room into two bedrooms, the opening of the kitchen/breakfast room, and the incorporation of the rear utility and cloakroom. Complete with a pretty, walled courtyard garden at the rear and a verdant, open outlook in front, this appealing home offers comfort, character and convenience in equal measure.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation, which features detailed plasterwork, sash windows, exposed floorboards throughout, high skirting and original cupboards, extends to over 2,000sqft in all and can be summarised as follows: a tiled entrance porch; an inner hallway with stairs to the first floor and separate rear access to the garden; a beautiful, bay-fronted sitting room centered around an open fireplace; through pocket doors, a separate dining room with a matching fireplace, French windows to the rear and a return door to the hallway; an attractive, country kitchen/breakfast room featuring excellent cupboards and cabinets with timber worktops, a central island, electric Aga and separate 2-ring gas hob; a dedicated utility room; a ground-floor WC; three first-floor double bedrooms, each with a feature fireplace; an elegant family bathroom; a separate Jack and Jill bathroom serving as an en-suite to the principal bedroom, and; two sizeable second-floor bedrooms.

OUTSIDE

To the rear of the house, accessible from the hallway or the kitchen, is a pretty, wall-enclosed courtyard garden containing a wildlife pond and an array of colourful shrubbery, providing a private and serene area in which to sit and relax, or dine alfresco. There is gated pedestrian access to a rear service lane running behind the terrace.

Please note that there is no off-road parking at the property, although there is good availability on the street in front of the house.
