SITUATION

The property is situated in one of Tavistock's most accessible locations, in the very heart of the town, within a level walk of just 150 yards to the high street and principal shopping parade. The town's many amenities and facilities are all in close proximity, and there is a local bus stop only 50 yards from the property's entrance. The prestigious Mount Kelly is within half a mile, and Dartmoor National Park, at Whitchurch Down, is approximately a mile away.

Tavistock is a thriving market town in West Devon, rich in history and tradition dating back to the 10th century. Today, the town offers a superb range of shopping, recreational and educational facilities, whilst the largely 19th-century town centre is focused around the Pannier Market and Bedford Square, in which regular farmers' markets are held. The coastal city of Plymouth is some 15 miles to the south, and Exeter, 40 miles to the northeast, provides air, rail and motorway connections to London and the rest of the UK.

DESCRIPTION

This hugely conveniently located, individual detached house is available for the first time in over 30 years, with no onward chain. The accommodation is extremely flexible, offering up to four bedrooms, arranged in a reverse-level layout to maximise natural light into the principal rooms. This flexibility provides considerable scope for alteration, remodelling or a potential extension, subject to any necessary consents or approvals. Externally, the house is served by ample parking in a gated drive, alongside a detached garage, with low-maintenance gardens to the front and rear. The property benefits from a good degree of modern comfort and convenience whilst featuring some character elements, such as dado rails, coving, beamed ceilings and stone former fireplaces, and, having been well-maintained in recent years, now presents an interesting opportunity for an incoming owner to create a one-of-a-kind home of their choosing.

ACCOMMODATION

The property is accessed at first-floor level beneath a covered entrance into a lobby, where stairs descend to the ground floor. The accommodation can then be summarised as follows: a central hallway; a bright, dual-aspect sitting room, centered around a sizeable stone fireplace housing a gas fire; the kitchen, which has a range of cupboards and cabinets with roll-edge worktops incorporating a stainless steel, 1.5-bowl sink and drainer, and spaces for appliances including a freestanding electric cooker; a breakfast/sun room with sliding doors to the garden; a dining room/potential bedroom, overlooking the front aspect; two first-floor double bedrooms; a large family bathroom with a bath and shower enclosure; a sizable ground-floor room which could be either a bedroom or reception room, with patio doors out to the front; an office/hobbies room featuring a worktop, extensive power points and fitted cupboards, and; a ground-floor WC.

OUTSIDE

The property is accessed into a good-sized, gated tarmac drive providing parking for several vehicles and housing the detached garage, which has power, lighting and a workbench. Steps then lead up to the property's entrance. There is access around both sides of the house to the rear courtyard garden, which features a paved patio and has two raised borders planted with established shrubbery.

SERVICES

Mains water, electricity, gas and drainage. Gas-fired central heating throughout. Ultrafast broadband is available, and mobile/data services are available with all four major providers (source: Ofcom's online service checker). Please note that the agents have neither inspected nor tested these services.
