

6 St. Martins Lane , York, YO1 6LN

A beautifully presented and deceptively spacious period townhouse. Perfectly positioned on a quiet cobbled street within the Heart of York's City Centre, just a short walk from the train station and the many local amenities. Formally known as 'Littlegate' in the 13th Century but now named after St Martin's Church which proudly stands at the top of the street, St. Martins Lane offers a unique opportunity to own a piece of York's history.
