Large enclosed private garden at the rear of the cottage which has a sitting area overlooking lawns with well stocked flowerbeds and shrubberies.

The cottage would make an ideal retirement, or holiday home. Viewing is highly recommended of this charming cottage.

Holy Island

Holy Island is an historic and picturesque island with a charming village with shops, cafes, public houses and the medieval Priory, founded by St Aidan. Steeped in history the island is the home of the world renowned Lindisfarne Gospels and the 16th century Castle. The island has lovely walks along sandy beaches and down to the harbour overlooking the castle. The island is accessed via a causeway with safe crossing dependent on the tides. Holy Island road runs off the A1 which provides excellent access. The closest town is Berwick-upon-Tweed some 13 miles away, which has varied shopping, sporting facilities and a railway station.
