We are delighted to bring to the market this spacious two bedroom first floor apartment, which is located in a prime residential area with stunning open views of the sea, the beach and the promenade. The immaculate and well maintained interior offers quality accommodation that is ready to walk into, which would make an ideal home for a first time buyer, or as a weekend retreat.

The property is entered into the lower hall which has stairs to the first floor landing. Spacious open plan living room/kitchen with a full length picture window to the front to taking advantage of the superb open views of the sea, the beach and the lighthouse. The kitchen area has quality dark blue units with integrated appliances, two generous double bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and a quality bathroom with a three piece suite featuring a freestanding bath.

The apartment has full double glazing and electric heating. Small lawn garden at the front of the property overlooking the sea.

Viewing is highly recommended, contact our Berwick-upon-Tweed office for a viewing.
