Eastbrook
Corby

Property Description

Situated in the Kingswood area of Corby is this stunning, recently renovated three bedroom mid-terraced property. This property boasts generous living space, fully fitted kitchen with space for a dining area, three double bedrooms, family bathroom along with front and rear gardens. The location of this property is perfect for families due to well regarded schools, play parks and local shops.

On entering the property you are welcomed by the bright entrance hall which houses the cloakroom to the left hand side along with the stairs to the first floor. The lounge is of generous size and is flooded with natural light, a great space for those cosy nights in with family. The kitchen has been recently refitted and includes integrated oven and hob with stainless steel splash back and cookerhood, whilst leaving space for a dining area. Adjoining the kitchen is a second hallway which benefits from external access and can be used as a boot room or a storage area.

To the first floor are the three bedrooms, all of which are double bedrooms with the master bedroom being of over twenty foot in length. The other two bedrooms benefit from built in wardrobes. Completing this floor is the family bathroom.

Externally of the property are two low maintenance gardens. The rear garden is fully enclosed by new timber fencing with pedestrian gate, mainly laid to lawn with patio area.
