Presenting a beautifully refurbished family home, this property shines with recent renovations throughout. The interior has been completely redesigned to create an ideal space for families and entertaining alike. Upon entry, a spacious hallway welcomes you, offering ample storage for outdoor gear and a convenient downstairs cloakroom WC. Additionally, there's a versatile office studio or optional fifth bedroom, providing flexibility to suit your needs.

The main living area impresses with its generous proportions and seamless extension, featuring a stunning vaulted ceiling with skylights that flood the space with natural light. The atmosphere is warm and inviting, complemented by an impressive central fireplace. The kitchen is truly the heart of this home, boasting a magnificent design and top-of-the-line appliances. The expansive layout extends further, with a central island serving as a focal point, complete with sleek lines and cleverly integrated features like a concealed extractor fan. Abundant worktop space and integrated storage solutions, including illuminated display cabinets, add both practicality and elegance. Bi-folding doors seamlessly connect the kitchen to the spacious terrace, blurring the lines between indoor and outdoor living.

Adjacent to the kitchen, a superbly sized utility room offers ample space for white goods, with convenient access to the garage. The garage, accessible via an electric roller door, houses the gas boiler and provides a secondary entrance to the rear garden.

Moving to the first floor, a spacious landing leads to a contemporary family bathroom and bedrooms 2, 3, and 4. The second bedroom boasts stunning sea views and built-in storage, along with an en suite shower room. Ascending to the second floor, the main bedroom awaits, offering panoramic sea views and ample space for furnishings. A smart contemporary en suite shower room completes this luxurious retreat, ensuring comfort and style for residents.
