Located in a quiet and popular cul-de-sac, this charming extended bungalow has a lot to offer. The area is popular with those wanting to be near the town yet enjoy a semi-rural setting with green hill views and open spaces. The small hamlet of St Mary's is just a brief walk away, offering a useful Spar shop with a sub post office, eateries, and pubs. Brixham town centre isn't far either, boasting a fantastic collection of restaurants, bars, shops, and more.

Inside the property, you'll find very spacious accommodation including excellent-sized living spaces and generous bedrooms. There is a double bedroom on the ground floor with a garden room off it, a spacious dining area, and a lounge area. The large kitchen breakfast room is perfect for family meals, and there is also a convenient downstairs shower room. Upstairs, you will find a large double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, providing privacy and comfort.

Outside, the plot is a fantastic size and slightly elevated, offering great views while still allowing easy entry from the drive into the kitchen without big steps. There is ample parking, a fantastic-sized workshop garage, and a good-sized garden shed for gardening enthusiasts. The beautifully landscaped back garden is perfect for gardeners, pets, and children alike, with many places to explore, relax, and enjoy complete privacy with open views in the distance.

The garden has been thoughtfully planted and designed, featuring various seating areas ideal for al-fresco dining or just soaking up the sun from the open southerly aspect. A path leads you through the different sections of the garden, making it a delightful space to spend time in and enjoy the outdoors.

The property is offered chain-free with vacant possession and benefits from gas central heating and mostly new PVCu double glazing. It has been well cared for and maintained, providing an excellent blank canvas thanks to its historic extension. This home is perfect for easy retirement living or as a family home that can grow with you.
