Situated in the heart of the lively fishing town of Brixham, this delightful two-bedroom terrace house combines coastal living with modern comforts.

The property is just a stone's throw from Brixham's picturesque harbour and enjoys an elevated position.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a cosy lounge with beautiful features, leading to a modern kitchen with sleek white gloss cupboard doors, creating a bright and airy atmosphere. The newly fitted family bathroom is luxurious, featuring a bathtub with a rain shower.

Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms, one with picturesque views over Brixham and the other overlooking the rear garden. A staircase leads to a versatile loft room with both front and rear outlooks, suitable for various purposes.

Externally, the property boasts a small courtyard at the back, providing a private outdoor space. At the front, there's a low-maintenance garden, perfect for entertaining or relaxation, offering a delightful setting to enjoy the surroundings.

Brixham is a charming coastal town in Devon, renowned for its picturesque harbour, colourful cottages, and maritime history. Explore the bustling fish market, stroll along the scenic waterfront, and savour fresh seafood in local eateries. With its rich maritime heritage, Brixham offers a unique blend of traditional charm and coastal beauty, making it a popular destination for visitors and a wonderful place to call home.
