Location and Overview

Situated within half a mile of Brixham town centre and harbour, this charming 1-bedroom ground floor maisonette offers a prime location for those seeking a central base. With quick and direct access to the town's vibrant pubs, cafés, and restaurants, and with Fore Street even closer, it's perfect for enjoying all that Brixham has to offer. The walk to the property involves only a small incline before leveling out, making it easily accessible.

Interior Features

The property boasts its own separate entrance, leading into a welcoming lounge area. This flows through to a modernised kitchen at the rear, providing a functional and stylish space for cooking and dining. Upstairs, the main bedroom is accompanied by a smaller separate room, ideal for use as an office or hobbies space. A modern 4-piece bathroom suite completes the first floor.

Exterior Features

To the rear of the building, an allocated parking space is accessed from Roseacre Terrace off Rea Barn Road. Steps lead down through the main building to the front entrance of the flat. The property also benefits from a communal garden/drying area at the back, offering panoramic views across Brixham towards St Mary's, with the picturesque Devonshire rolling hills beyond.
