Melville is a fine example of a double bay fronted Victorian town house. Historically the property was a gentleman's residence enjoying a prime position near to the town centre and harbour only a brief 5 minute level walk away. Currently the property is a well established Guest House which has achieved an impressive 4* rating. The property benefits from 5 letting rooms with 2 further en suite owners rooms.

The letting rooms are all very spacious quality double bedrooms, three of which are arranged as suite rooms with lounge areas, and all have en suite facilities. The rooms are all in excellent order with good quality decor and sanitary ware, having been modernised by the current owners. The communal areas include an impressive size lounge/ breakfast room with ample space for all guests at the same time.

The kitchen is a great size, perfect for a full house and is finished with lots of work surfaces and a good size quality range cooker. The kitchen has just been finished having had a refit to a high standard. Just off the kitchen a covered courtyard garden leads to a laundry utility room enabling owners to facilitate on site laundry, improving profit margins.

The owners accommodation is an excellent size and comprises of a separate dining room, large long lounge complete with a snug area, useful store room, and direct access into the rear garden. The owners accommodation enjoys privacy and a good amount of separation from guests. On the first floor you can find a good size linen cupboard with store, and two double bedrooms both with en suite facilities. There is a access point from the larger main bedroom directly from the en suite into the garden. The rear higher garden and decked area is a great sun trap with lovely limestone walls and a useful outside store.

Outside to the front there is a good amount of off road parking with a gravel driveway giving parking comfortably for 3 cars. To the rear is a good size car port for another large vehicle. In addition, the current owners have a rental agreement for 2 extra car parking spaces in the adjacent church car park.
