The ground floor features a stunning extended kitchen diner, designed with contemporary fittings and ample space for dining and socialising. The light-filled living room, complete with an inset log gas fire, provides a cosy retreat. Additionally, a convenient downstairs WC and ample under-stairs storage enhance the practicality of the layout.

The first floor of the property comprises three well-proportioned bedrooms, each with uPVC double glazed windows and radiators, ensuring a comfortable and energy-efficient living environment. The modern family bathroom is elegantly fitted with a pea-shaped bath, wall-mounted shower with body jets, and built-in storage, providing a luxurious space for relaxation.

Externally, the property boasts both front and rear gardens that enjoy a sunny aspect, providing a delightful setting for outdoor activities and entertaining. The rear garden, accessible from the kitchen or via a side gate, features attractive paving for alfresco dining, a large lawn area, and colourful raised beds with slate stone chippings. Of particular note is the very impressive summerhouse, converted from the former garage. This fully insulated and double glazed space offers huge amounts of versatility with its separate WC and worktop with sink. It makes for an ideal working-from-home space, teenagers 'pad', 'man cave', home gym, or any number of other uses. Historically, the property also has had building regulation approval to create a fourth bedroom with an en suite shower room, adding further potential for expansion.
