Situated in one of the South West's most picturesque locations, this two-bedroom bungalow in Galmpton presents a unique opportunity for a successful holiday let business. The property is located close to the beautiful River Dart and Greenway House, the former home of Agatha Christie, now a National Trust site. The famous steam railway runs through Galmpton, with the newly built Greenway Halt station just a few hundred yards away, offering convenient access to the surrounding area.

Galmpton is well-served by local amenities, including a village store with a sub post office, an excellent butcher, and a friendly village pub offering great food.

Number 19 is a well-maintained property that offers new owners the chance to personalise and update it to their own taste. The bungalow features a light and airy front-aspect lounge-diner, adjacent to a good-sized and practical fitted kitchen. The two bedrooms are located towards the rear, along with a family shower room. Outside, there is a pleasant sitting area, perfect for enjoying the sunshine, as the bungalow enjoys a south-westerly aspect with views of the surrounding countryside and towards the River Dart.

This FREEHOLD bungalow can be let year-round, but cannot be used as a permanent residence. A monthly maintenance charge of £50 covers water and sewerage, site maintenance, park lighting, grass cutting, and refuse collection. The site is managed by Galmpton Holiday Park Bungalows Ltd, of which all bungalow owners are members.
