This generously sized, modern townhouse (constructed in 2006) offers stunning open views across Brixham to Torbay, as well as pleasant rural vistas. The property is bright and sunny, with contemporary fittings throughout, providing a welcoming and comfortable atmosphere. The Crescent benefits from beautifully landscaped garden areas at the front, offering ample space and a green environment that preserves the open views.

The house is located approximately three-quarters of a mile from the waterfront and harbour areas, and is well-positioned for enjoying the network of coastal walks with breathtaking sea views. It also offers direct access to St Mary's Beach. For families, there is a children's play area at the foot of The Crescent. Local shops are conveniently located nearby at St. Mary's Square and Castor Road, with a bus service easily accessible if required. Other amenities, including Brixham Indoor Swimming Pool, Brixham Rugby Club, and Brixham Leisure Centre, are within half a mile.

The property features a spacious kitchen/diner, ideal for larger families or those who love to entertain. A guest WC is conveniently located on the entrance level. Downstairs, you'll find a large lounge, complete with a useful study area, perfect for those working or studying from home. The lounge opens onto a rear courtyard garden.

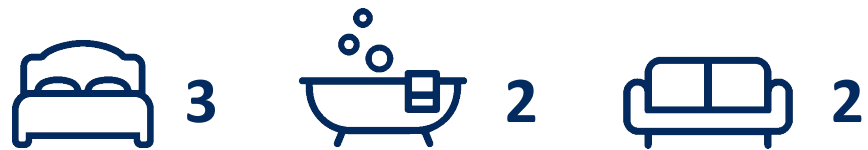

The garden has been designed for ease of maintenance, with a patio seating area. A garden gate provides access to both visitor and allocated parking spaces.

The master bedroom occupies the entire top floor and benefits from its own spacious en-suite shower room. The two additional double bedrooms enjoy lovely open views and share a family bathroom.

This property would make an ideal "lock-up-and-leave" home, or it could suit families or couples looking for a low-maintenance, modern property. An internal viewing is strongly recommended to appreciate the outlook and spaciousness.

Presented in turn-key condition, the property is equipped with gas central heating (with a new boiler installed in 2020) and modern UPVC double glazing throughout. There is a monthly maintenance charge of £50 for the upkeep of the communal areas and wildlife preservation at Sharkham Village, which also includes a sinking fund. This home will appeal to a wide range of buyers, and an internal viewing is highly recommended.
