This charming four-bedroom semi-detached property offers fantastic potential and is located in a highly sought-after area near Berry Head Country Park and within close proximity to the harbour. While the property does require modernisation throughout, it boasts an excellent size and provides ample space for those looking to create their ideal family home. The location alone makes it an attractive prospect, with the surrounding natural beauty and access to local amenities enhancing its appeal.

The ground floor offers a large and welcoming through lounge/diner, providing an excellent space for both relaxing and entertaining. The layout is flexible, with the kitchen conveniently located off the dining area, and the entire space benefiting from natural light streaming through large windows. At the rear of the property, a spacious conservatory extends the living space further and opens directly into a generous garden, offering a peaceful outdoor retreat.

In addition to the living areas, the property also includes a versatile studio space at the rear of the garden. This is an exciting feature, with significant potential for a variety of uses. The studio could easily be transformed into a granny annex (subject to the necessary permissions) or could serve as a perfect home office, art studio, or workshop space. The possibilities are endless, making this property stand out for buyers seeking flexibility and additional room for creative or practical purposes.

The first floor features three well-proportioned bedrooms, ideal for family living, along with a family bathroom. Each bedroom offers comfortable living space, and the layout allows for easy customisation to suit individual preferences. Whether you need room for children, guests, or a home office, these bedrooms can cater to various needs. The family bathroom is spacious enough to accommodate all the essentials, though it may benefit from modernisation to align with contemporary standards.

On the second floor, there is a large loft bedroom, which adds another layer of living space to this already generous home. The loft bedroom is an excellent feature for those who desire extra privacy or a quiet retreat. With a bit of updating, this could become a truly stunning bedroom with plenty of room for furniture and storage. Additionally, the property benefits from lovely sea views to the rear, overlooking Torbay and extending towards Torquay and across Lyme Bay, which is a rare and desirable feature for a property of this type.

Overall, this four-bedroom semi-detached house presents a fantastic opportunity for those looking for a spacious home in a prime location. While the property may need some modernising to reach its full potential, its size, layout, and location near Berry Head Country Park and the harbour make it a must-see. With a large garden, a versatile studio, and stunning sea views, this home offers a great canvas for anyone looking to create their dream property in a sought-after part of the country.
