About this property

Positioned towards the head of the cul-de-sac is this remarkable link detached home with its clean and crisp rendered facade. The UPVC double glazed anthracite windows blend well with the bright polished render and having the porch entrance added to the front elevation provides a perfect introduction to this home. Stepping into the main reception room you are greeted by a large living room which is flooded with natural light. To the rear of the property is the hub of the home with large open plan kitchen family room which includes double doors onto the south facing rear garden. The two-tone shaker style kitchen offers a range of fitted appliances with a kitchen peninsula that is both functional and stylish. There is ample space for a dining table and chairs as well as comfortable seating and having all this space provides a classic environment for entertaining friends and family. There is large utility room which promotes ample space for day-to-day appliances, whilst a downstairs WC provides excellent balance to the ground floor. To the first floor there are three comfortable bedrooms, serviced by an impeccable stylish family bathroom and a separate WC. Externally there are landscaped gardens to the front and rear. A gravelled driveway, edged with block paving, provides off road parking with a part lawned area which is flanked by mature hedges to offer excellent privacy. To the rear there is a composite decked patio area which leads to a privately enclosed lawned non overlooked garden. There has been no expense spared on this modernised family home and we can not wait to show you around.
