DESIGN AND LAYOUT

The impressive stone-built front porch serves as the gateway to a well-lit and spacious hallway, which connects to a variety of living spaces. The primary family areas, including the open-concept lounge and sitting rooms, have been strategically placed to enjoy both physical and visual access to the secluded courtyard garden areas, following the natural path of sunlight throughout the property.

Additional living areas, including a study/bedroom five with access to an en-suite facility. A further gym/bedroom six again with access to a bathroom seamlessly linking these rooms to the everyday family living spaces. The open-concept living/kitchen/diner is a truly stunning centrepiece of the property with a beautiful bespoke kitchen and second kitchen providing a useful addition. The double garage to the right of the property links to the main house for easy access with an additional staircase providing access to a guest suite above the garage with a bathroom facility which makes an ideal room for a live-in housekeeper/au pair.

To the first floor, the master bedroom features a vaulted ceiling with stunning views of the gardens, a walk-in wardrobe and an en-suite. The spacious second bedroom also has an en-suite with two further bedrooms all arranged off a well-lit landing with a bespoke oak staircase.

THE SITE AND SURROUNDINGS

The large scale of the house is entirely in keeping with the site and surrounding area with the pitch of the roof being one of the most distinctive features of this architectural style. Its scale is also appropriate to the size of plot on which it sits being close to three quarters of an acre. The roof has been designed with distinctive hips and gables, creating greater spacing and light between dwellings.

The residence is nestled amidst expansive landscaped gardens, bordered by mature hedgerows and trees which shield the property, especially from Bradgate Road and its neighbouring southern boundary. Some of these trees reach impressive heights, enhancing the charm and character of the mature, green backdrop. Bradgate Road itself is a lush suburban street, with fully grown trees lining the road and surrounding properties.

Blending authentic bespoke design, meticulous spatial organisation, and top-tier construction, Bradgate Road presents the pinnacle of elegant family living. Every conceivable luxury is seamlessly integrated into the home's design, harnessing the latest technological advancements, including fully customizable multimedia, lighting, and a cutting-edge security/CCTV system.
