The property stands within a generous, wide-fronted plot, beautifully framed by mature trees and established planting, affording a high degree of privacy and natural screening. To the rear, the garden enjoys a particularly appealing outlook, backing onto the Cross Town Bowling Green, creating a tranquil and green backdrop. A substantial driveway provides ample off-road parking and leads to a large integral double garage, offering excellent potential to reconfigure or extend the accommodation, subject to the necessary planning consents.

The private rear garden, thoughtfully stocked and predominantly laid to lawn, features a superb entertaining patio and further highlights the exceptional scope to extend and enhance the property to create a truly bespoke family home.

A welcoming entrance hallway with cloakroom and W.C leads through to a flexible sitting room or home office, alongside an impressive bay-fronted living room with double doors opening into a substantial conservatory, perfectly positioned to enjoy views across the garden. Further double doors connect to a formal dining room, also benefiting from a rear bay window. The well-appointed dining kitchen flows seamlessly into a utility room, providing direct access to both the garden and the integral double garage.
