The Abbeyfield Society

The Abbeyfield Society is a charity that has provided housing and care for older people for over 60 years, Founded in 1956 by Major Richard Carr-Gomm, the society has grown from a single house in Bermondsey, London to providing services to over 7000 residents in 500 houses and homes across the UK. Their guiding principle is to provide companionship, care, practical support and peace of mind to older couples.

The Property

Burnham Court was built in 2017 to a high standard. Abbeyfield Apartments are well placed to support a vibrant community of like-minded people who value their independence. At Burnham Court you can enjoy the privacy of your own apartment, combined with the communal facilities and events. These include a large, spacious and comfortable lounge, perfect for entertaining friends and family, a dining room to enjoy coffee and freshly prepared meals, a luxury bathroom and hair salon, an activities room, a buggy store, landscaped gardens and a guest suite for visiting family and friends, for a nightly fee. As part of the Wellbeing charge Burnham Court provides a safe environment with staff 24 hours a day for support with emergencies.

The Accommodation

No. 40 is located on the second floor and is approached via wide easy-going stairs or the lift. The private front door leads into a generous hall with separate boiler and linen cupboards. There is an open plan kitchen/dining/sitting room that has a range of units with a built-in oven and hob, plus space for a washing machine and fridge. The sitting area has a door and Juliet balcony to take full advantage of the view. There are two bedrooms and a large wet room.

Outside

There are communal gardens surrounding the apartments and a lovely courtyard in the centre. There is parking for about 20 cars.

Tenure and service charge

Leasehold for 125 years from 01/01/17. The 2023 service charge is £507.25 pcm and includes buildings insurance. Water and gas are supplied from a central source and invoiced quarterly. The Wellbeing charge is £174.20 pcm, which covers the 24 hour emergency calls.
