The Property

Situated in a highly sought-after position on the northern edge of Malmesbury, this light-filled and spacious detached family home offers well-balanced accommodation and excellent flexibility for modern living. At the heart of the home is an exceptional kitchen/dining room with adjoining utility. Double doors open into a versatile playroom—ideal for young families or as an additional reception space. The ground floor also features a welcoming entrance hall leading to a good size sitting room, separate study, and WC. Upstairs, a spacious galleried landing leads to four double bedrooms, two of which enjoy en-suite facilities. The remaining bedrooms are served by a well-appointed family bathroom, and all rooms benefit from ample natural light. Outside, the property is complemented by front and rear gardens with mature planting, offering privacy and a pleasant outlook. Attached to the garage is a fully converted and insulated home office, accessed from the rear garden—perfect for remote working, hobbies, or studio use. Driveway parking adds to the convenience.

Malmesbury

Reported to be England's oldest borough, dating from around 880AD, Malmesbury is a vibrant market town. Home to a stunning 12th century Abbey, a 15th century Market Cross and a charming High Street with unique, independent shops. There are lovely walks along the beautiful River Avon, fabulous cafes, restaurants, pubs and the oldest Hotel in England. It has a Waitrose supermarket, a regular farmers' market, a library, museum, leisure centre with pool, two primary schools and a 'High Performing Academy' secondary school. It is also home to the UK headquarters of Dyson. Nearby are the popular attractions of Westonbirt Arboretum and the Cotswold Water Park. The City of Bath is 23 miles to the south-west and J17 of the M4, 5 miles south, provides access to the area's major employment centres and there are trains to Paddington in just over an hour from Chippenham and Kemble. The nearest airport is at Bristol and London Heathrow is within easy reach along the M4.
