SOUTH SIDE, WELHAM HALL, WELHAM, RETFORD, NOTTINGHAMSHIRE, DN22 0SF

DESCRIPTION

Southside is an imposing and unique three bedroom residence of character forming one fourth of Welham Hall and retaining some original style features including high ceilings, dado rails and ornate cornicing as well as established and attractive gardens surrounding Southside. Welham Hall was originally built as a fine country gentleman's residence with an interesting social history. Southside offers generous accommodation with good sized reception hall with open fireplace, large drawing room with views to the gardens and an extended family kitchen dining room which also in addition has access to the utility room and ground floor cloakroom.

Externally there is a timber clad detached double garage, some brick built outbuildings/sheds and a bothy with exposed brick walling and log burner. The driveway to the property sweeps along the front of Southside and provides further additional parking.

LOCATION

The property enjoys an enviable hilltop location nestled within a small cluster of residential properties, set well back from Little Gringley Lane. Welham Hall is approached by a tree lined shared driveway off Little Gringley Lane where Southside entrance is via a five bar gate to the right towards the top. Welham is a much desired hamlet situated just beyond the boundary to the North Nottinghamshire market town of Retford which is an appealing Georgian market town offering a full range of leisure, recreational and educational facilities, The A1 lies to the west which gives access to the wider motorway network and Retford town has a mainline railway station on the London to Edinburgh intercity link.
