CHURCH FARM

HEADON

RETFORD, NOTTINGHAMSHIRE, DN22 0RD

DESCRIPTION

Church Farm represents a rarely available opportunity to acquire a stunning Grade II listed link detached barn conversion of character and equine orientation, with land extending to approximately 10.3 acres STMS, fine array of supporting buildings including multi-functional covered crew yard and stabling, together with excellent vehicle arrangements.

The property is configured to capture wonderful westerley views over its own paddock land and countryside beyond.

The living space delivers generously proportioned principal rooms with glorious sitting room having inglenook fireplace, log burner and substantial picture windows; the living dining kitchen is ideal for relaxed gathering with family and friends. At ground floor level, there is a charming reception hall, utility room, third bedroom and luxuriously appointed, travertine tiled, shower room. At first floor level there are two further bedrooms, both with views and house bathroom.

A particular feature is the covered crew yard, which is highly practical allowing covered access to the stables and tack room/workshop, general amenity, sheltered working, storage and so on.

Gated and substantial vehicle parking court wrapping around the home for ease of parking distribution and manoeuvring; car barn, further garaging and stores. A summer house nestles to the rear with enclosed entertaining patio enjoying a southerly aspect over the domestic lawned garden, but also within sight of the property's land extending beyond.

Church Farm is equipped with oil fired central heating via the Stanley range in the kitchen, running economies of this fine property are improved by the addition of solar panels.

LOCATION

Headon is a modest village, benefiting from village hall and church, Church Farm is located on its periphery commanding the aforementioned panoramic westerly views.

There is ready access to a wealth of bridleways lanes and paths for hacking out.

A good road network is in striking distance for those wishing to travel further afield or commute upon the A1.

The nearby market town of Retford offers a full range of residential amenities and has a direct rail service into London Kings Cross (approx. 1 hour 30 minutes)

Leisure amenities and educational facilities (for both state and independent) are well catered for.
