Assessments First

Externally

The approach to the farmhouse is via a private drive leading to an open driveway area which provides ample parking and access to the paddock and stables area. The garden features a front lawn raised above the driveway level, at the front of the house. Mature trees, shrubs, and bushes on the Dark Lane side provide privacy, with potential to open up into a side garden area. Attached to the rear of the house, off the kitchen, is a large double garage, with separate WC.

A grassed courtyard is flanked to each side by two stable blocks. The first comprises a range of 4 stables and a tack/feed store rooms , constructed from concrete blocks with concrete floors and a concrete path to the front. To the end is an additional pair of stables with a dilapidated roof. Opposite is a further range of 4 stables in a semi-dilapidated condition, again constructed from concrete blocks with concrete floors and a concrete path to the front. Additionally, there is a timber-built pole barn under a mono pitch roof, with cladding in a dilapidated state, at the top end of the courtyard. To the top of the paddock is a metal-clad field shelter. Please note viewing of the buildings and stableblocks will be external only; due to the condition, access inside will not be permitted.

To the lower end of the paddock is a further lawned areas with fruit trees and a greenhouse.

Land situated to the West side of Dark Lane Farm may be available by separate negotiation.
