

WESTDEAN AVENUE, NEWHAVEN, EAST SUSSEX, BN9 9TX

£600,000

A rare opportunity to acquire a unique family home located in an elevated location with expansive views to the countryside, sea, and Seaford Head. The house is very well presented and is a generous size, with the accommodation in excess of 2500 square feet.

The house borders the popular harbour town of Newhaven, which offers various everyday amenities, a range of shops, schools, supermarkets, cafés and restaurants, while neighbouring Peacehaven and Seaford offer further facilities and shops. The area offers easy access to the A26 providing access towards Lewes. Newhaven has two train stations, providing services to Lewes, where connections can be made to London.

On the ground floor there is a large open-plan living kitchen dining room, two reception rooms, utility room and cloakroom. The first floor has the family bathroom with separate shower, the main bedroom with en-suite shower room, and two double bedrooms. On the top floor, there is another generous-sized double bedroom and large loft area.

Outside there are large side and rear gardens which are mainly laid to lawn, and have the benefit of uninterrupted views toward Seaford Head.

An internal inspection is advised to appreciate the wealth of charm and accommodation on offer.
