

3 THE LORDS, SEAFORD, EAST SUSSEX, BN25 2XP

£785,000

Number 3 The Lords has attractive Tudor-style front elevations, hence named the 'Alfriston' design by Johnson Fry Property in the early 1990s. The property is situated in a sought-after location and forms part of an elite development of executive-style houses. Seaford town centre, with its wide range of shopping amenities and railway station, is approximately one and a half miles distant.

Seaford golf course and excellent countryside walks over the South Downs National Park are also located nearby.

Accommodation includes sitting room with an inglenook fireplace, dining room, cloakroom, study, kitchen and adjoining utility room with personal door to the integral double garage. On the first floor, a galleried landing provides access to the four bedrooms, with the master bedroom having the benefit of an en suite bathroom.

Other features and benefits include a good size rear garden, gas central heating, a double garage with pitched roof and off road parking.
