

76 SUTTON ROAD, SEAFORD, BN25 1SX

£585,000

A large three bedroom detached family home, ideally situated in an extremely convenient location along the A259, within easy walking distance of Seaford town centre, railway station and bus services operating to both Brighton and Eastbourne.

From the entrance, you are greeted by an open hallway which opens into the dining room. On the ground floor there is a living room with a wood-burning stove, conservatory (currently arranged as a study), well-fitted modern kitchen, separate utility room, cloakroom large workshop and a single garage.

The first floor has three double bedrooms, a dressing room and a modern shower room. The main bedroom has the added benefit of having an EN-suite shower room.

Outside there is a carriage-style driveway affording off road parking for several vehicles, a single garage and Southerly aspect rear garden which is laid to patio with shrub and tree borders. There are also double gates which lead to an additional paved area.

Further features and benefits include gas central heating and double glazed windows.

An internal inspection is advised to appreciate the wealth of accommodation on offer.
