Exterior & Entrance

The property boasts a beautifully elevated Yorkstone terrace that spans nearly the full width of the plot with mature coastal plants and provides a stunning vantage point from which to enjoy uninterrupted views of the sea. To the right of the property is a decking area boarded by wooden posts and nautical style rope giving a beachside marine feel. A sheltered veranda-style entrance, featuring smart tiled flooring, creates a warm and inviting seating area perfect for relaxing and gazing across the coastal landscape.

Entrance & Reception

The front door opens into a charming entrance lobby with Quarry tiled flooring, leading through a glazed door into a welcoming reception hall, enhanced by oak flooring, under-stairs storage, a slimline column radiator and a bright, open feel.

Tucked just off the hall is a compact study, ideal for home working, with a front-facing window overlooking the veranda.

The lounge exudes character, with warm oak flooring, low-level column radiators, and a feature gas coal-effect fireplace with ornate surround and display mantel. A built-in drinks cabinet adds sophistication. Multiple shuttered windows invite natural light while framing beautiful sea views, making this room both cosy and elegant.

Open-plan Kitchen, Breakfast & Family Room

French doors lead into an expansive kitchen and day room, thoughtfully designed to balance practicality with style. Highlights include a bespoke range of fitted cupboards and drawers, Butler-style sink, and a five-burner Range Master cooker. Extensive worktops incorporate a breakfast bar, with integrated refrigerator and dishwasher. The space is bathed in natural light from four skylights and features oak flooring throughout. French doors open onto a nautical timber deck leading to the front garden, offering more of those uninterrupted sea views.

A door from the kitchen leads to a generous laundry/boiler room, housing the Worcester gas boiler (installed 2025) and Glenhill water cylinder with space and plumbing for a washing machine and additional appliance. Side window, radiator and built-in cupboards. A further door opens to the ground floor cloakroom with traditional-style wash basin and WC.

Dining Room

The separate dining room continues the oak flooring theme, with a low-level column radiator, front-facing window with shutters and sea views. A classic built-in display cabinet with glass-fronted doors spans the width of the room, with a central alcove perfect for decorative pieces.

Ground Floor Bedrooms

Bedroom Five is split-level and double aspect, with a view over the rear garden and French doors opening onto timber decking. Bedroom Four is similarly generous, with a built-in wardrobe, part-panelled walls, upright column radiators, and French doors leading to the rear garden. Both are well-appointed and ideal for guests or family.

A ground floor shower room serves these bedrooms, fitted with a walk-in shower cubicle, towel rail, WC, wash basin, rear window, with smartly panelled walls.

First Floor Accommodation

A central staircase with polished wood handrail leads to the first-floor landing, laid with oak flooring. A shuttered low-level window offers natural light, while generous built-in storage and a radiator add functionality. There's also a walk-in wardrobe and access to the loft.

Main Suite

The principal bedroom suite includes built-in wardrobes and a matching dressing table along one wall, with a column radiator. The room flows through to an en-suite shower room together with separate private bathroom, featuring a roll-top bath, French doors opening onto a balustraded balcony, where sweeping views of the English Channel create a perfect start to each day. A built-in linen cupboard and towel rail add practical luxury.

Bedroom Two

This room mirrors the elegance of the main suite, with oak flooring, column radiator, rear window, French doors with shutter blinds also opening to the large balcony with glass balustrade. The breathtaking views of the sea and promenade. A well-appointed en-suite bathroom includes a panelled bath with shower screen, wash bowl, WC and towel rail.

Bedroom Three

A bright and comfortable double, with upright column radiator, side window with shutters, en-suite shower room featuring a shower cubicle, vanity unit and WC. Handy built-in storage.

Gardens & Grounds

To the front, a generous lawn is intersected by a central Yorkstone pathway that leads to an outdoor entertainment area, including a timber deck and barbecue space, perfect for entertaining while taking in the serene views of the English Channel and the house itself.

The rear garden is part-lawned, with pathways, raised sleeper beds for planting, fruit trees and a timber shed for storage.

Outbuildings & Access

A valuable addition is the detached outbuilding, comprising a garden room and garage, which has the advantage of access of a long concrete drive via Albany Road, providing ample off-street parking.

The main entrance to the property is via Marine Parade, through a long tarmac drive and entrance gates, enhancing both privacy and presence.
