Welcome to 'Hollymount' - A property with a name steeped in the rich history of warm family and community memories, is available for sale and to be your new 'Lifestyle Home' with business premises. An exceptional semi detached family home within walking distance of Timperley village and occupying an enviable plot which needs to be seen to be appreciated.

POSTCODE: WA15 6UD

DESCRIPTION

Viewed from the Park Road railway bridge sweeping down into the historic Timperley Village, you're greeted with the wide and inviting frontage of 'Hollymount' at 215 Park Road.

This substantial semi-detached family home is typical of the era with rooms of generous size, tall ceilings and is well presented throughout with accommodation arranged over three floors plus cellars and commercial premises.

From horse stables 100 years ago to a vehicle convenience station and most recently the family car repair garage, the office and workshops that accompany 'Hollymount' can be your next business expansion, new venture or even just a hobby area for those in need of that extra space. The commercial premises included are already registered for 'business use' or can be reverted to residential should you prefer. The options here are endless!

The 'residence' shows a meticulous luxury finish and fitout including high ceilings and well presented cellars. Your new home boasts bay view windows to the front and side where you can look out onto your expansive front yard with entry and exit to the wide driveway, garden planters and private courtyard plus shoppers' side entry to the home.

Whether you're looking for a period property with endearing features, the convenience of Village living, added space in a premium location or to be opposite a park with green fields to walk, you'll be hard pushed to find a more perfect opportunity in securing 'Hollymount' at 215 Park Road. Be sure to book and view this family home with business premises today.
