DESCRIPTION

Built in the latter part of the Victorian era this bay fronted terraced home forms part of a highly favoured locality ideally placed approximately equidistant between the village of Hale with its range of fashionable restaurants and individual shops and the town centre of Altrincham with its highly popular market hall and Metrolink commuter service into Manchester. The property is also well placed for access to the surrounding network of motorways and Manchester Airport and lies within the catchment area of highly regarded primary and secondary schools. In addition Stamford Park is close by with recreation areas including children's playground and tennis courts.

Typical of the era it is difficult to appreciate from the exterior the extent of the accommodation within. Much of the original character remains with tall ceilings and decorative mouldings compliments by modern enhancements and fittings.

Internal presentation is to an exceptional standard and approached beyond a recessed porch and welcoming entrance hall. Positioned to the front of the property is a spacious sitting room featuring an attractive gas fired stove and bay window with plantation shutters. From the sitting room double glass panelled doors lead onto an open plan dining kitchen with a range of quality integrated appliances and with two sets of doors leading onto the rear gardens and patio seating area. Adjacent to the kitchen is a separate utility room with cloakroom/WC off.

To the first floor there are two excellent double bedrooms, one with fitted wardrobes and both served by a family bathroom fitted with a contemporary suite. The accommodation is completed by the second floor which provides a principal suite with double bedroom with Juliette balcony and adjacent shower room/WC.

Externally there is a gated courtyard garden to the front whilst to the rear is an enclosed patio seating area accessed via the dining area and from the main kitchen double doors lead onto the gardens laid mainly to lawn and enjoying a high degree of privacy.

A superb family home in an ideal location and viewing is essential to appreciate the standard of accommodation on offer.
